Center Township Schedule of Fees

I. SUBDIVISION AND LAND DEVELOPMENT

- a. The applicant shall make payable to Center Township an application filing fee. The application filing fee shall cover the administrative costs associated with processing and reviewing an application. Applicant shall also pay all reasonable and necessary charges by the Township’s professional consultants, Township Solicitor, and/or Township Engineer for review and report on the application to the Township. The applicant shall also reimburse the Township for the reasonable and necessary inspection fees for the inspection of improvements associated with an application. It is understood that when filing an application, the applicant is not delinquent on any prior owed fees to the Township. Should this be the case, the Township reserves the right to deny approval of the application and any other project submitted by the applicant/landowner until such delinquent obligations are satisfied.

The following fees apply to any and all subdivisions and/or land development plans:
